

Thousand Years War

A short review on The Thousand Years' War in the Mideast and How it Affects You by Richard J Maybury!

What is the author's perspective on the problem in the Middle East? (And how does the author's religious views affect his perspective?)

Where do you disagree with the author? (Note: The Crusades began when the Arab rulers of Jerusalem refused to allow Europeans to visit the Holy Land. Arabs began to slaughter the pilgrims who were trying to visit the land of the Bible. This began the Crusades.)

How do the war in Iraq and the problems with terrorism affect our economy?

How does the Islam religion play into the picture?
